Bank Note Protection.
A new plan to prevent Fraud by the Alteration of Bank Notes from low to higher denominations.

The Notes are divided into two classes
CLASS FIRST embraces the denominations of one two, three four and five dollars These are distinguished by strips at the right ends of the notes, composed of geometric lathe work and running towards the centre the number of strips corresponding with the amounts of the notes Thus a one strip for one dollar two strips for two dollars and so on, and upon the centre of these strips a large figure, readily seen, designates the denomination of each note In this class of notes, there are no borders on the left ends—which are occupied by vignettes and other work The President's name will be placed under and near the right end strip work on all notes of this class, and that of the Register or some other name above it thus protecting the strip work from alteration—no place being left for adding another strip either above or below the signatures
CLASS SECOND, embraces the denominations of ten, twenty fifty one hundred and five hundred dollars On these the whole arrangement is reversed The strips of lathe work (different from those used upon the other class of notes) commence at the left ends, and run towards the centre the vignettes and their work being upon the right On this class the Cashier's name is placed under the strip work and that of the Register directly over it their names being separated by one strip on a ten dollar note by two on a twenty three on a fifty four on a hundred and by five strips upon a five hundred dollar note presenting a perfect contrast between the two classes of notes
Any person acquainted with the plan could not be deceived by any alteration of any one of these notes in either class, from one denomination to another The plan is a simple one, and is comprehended almost at a glance from an examination of the notes, for although so many lines are required to describe it in words the pictorial description is very short, and easily understood and remembered The inventor JAMES ATWATER Esq, of New Haven Conn has secured his invention by caveat, entered at the Patent Office at Washington and has made an arrangement with DANFORTH WRIGHT & CO, exclusively for its use upon Bank Notes
Besides the protection against the alteration of the denominations of Bank Notes afforded to banks and the public by this plan a very great security against counterfeiting is also afforded by the free use of the geometric lathe work of which the borders are composed, and which cannot be successfully imitated either with any other machine or with the graver

Having had occasion to observe that some persons afflicted with Hernia, have suffered much from the want of a skillful workman in accommodating Trusses to the peculiarities of their cases I have taken pains to inform myself of the competency of Mr J F Foster to supply the deficiency occasioned by the death of Mr Beath After some months of observation of his work I am well satisfied that Mr Foster is well acquainted with the manufacture of these instruments and ingenious in accommodating them to the variety of cases which occur I feel called upon to recommend him to my professional brethren, and to the public as a person well fitted to supply their wants in regard to those important articles

Particulars of the Montreal Trouble.

MONTREAL, June 10

As advertised, Signor Gavazzi met a numerous audience in Zion's Church at half past six o'clock, last night. Many of our most respectable citizens with their families, being present. About half past seven o clock, we went to the door of the church, where we found Capt. Ermatinger, with a strong posse of police, some thirty in number.

At this time, and for about half an hour afterwards, groups of wild, ragged, ruffian-looking men, were assembled around the door of the church, and at different points between the church and McGill street. We mixed freely among these people, and conversed with more than one of those who are considered leaders of the Irish Catholic party. We were assured by them that they had only come to the ground to use their influence to prevent a disturbance.

About a quarter to 8 o'clock a band of ruffians—we learn, for although in sight we were at too great a distance to see more than a general melee had taken place—they attacked and overpowered the police. Capt. Ermatinger received a severe wound on his head, and proceeded to force their way into the church, from which a body of fifteen or twenty repulsed them—several shots from guns and pistols being fired from both sides. The assaulting party were effectually routed, and two or three of their number were left dead or wounded on the ground and shortly after were removed by their accomplices.

Soon after this occurrence, a company of the 26th Cameronians marched from Craig Street and were drawn up between the Engine house and that street. All seemed perfectly quiet, and remained so until about quarter past eight o clock.

When the lecture was concluded, the audience began to leave the church. The troops were then marched across Craig street, and took their position in two lines across Radegunde street, one nearly opposite Zion Church and the other some hundred paces near Craig street. A good deal of loud hooting and noise prevailed at this time and on the McGill street side of Craig street, some difficulty with the lowest line of troops occurred, and two or three shots were fired. In other respects all seemed peaceable.

We were at this time at the corner of St James and McGill street and had a clear and distinct view of the troops, and of the people in their immediate vicinity. There we saw no cause for such a measure—for there was absolutely no rioting, and the people were hurrying home from the church—out to our astonishment the troops fired two distinct running volleys among the citizens! It was time to attend to one's own safety. We beat a rapid retreat from this apparent scene of wanton and uncalled for slaughter.

This, we feel is not the time to express the indignation with which we saw British troops deliberately shoot down our peaceful and unoffending fellow citizens. We were too far off to speak personally of the conduct of the May or and of the officers by whose orders the firing was done. But if we are correctly informed by those who were on the spot there was nothing whatever to justify so rash and cowardly a proceeding. We must not, however prejudge their conduct on the occasion.

The following, so far as we have been able to ascertain, is a list of the killed and wounded.

Peter Gillespie, clerk in Mr Johnson's store shot through the head with a musket ball and mortally wounded. He died this morning.

E Crosby Clark, a relative of Mr Tyre of Tyre, Colquohon & Co—shot through the heart and killed.

Jarius Hutchinson, killed.

Mr Adams son of city councillor Adams mortally wounded—shot through the lungs.

Mr J O Neill, shot through the body not expected to recover.

Master Wallace, a lad 11 years of age severely wounded.

Mr Clore, book keeper at W Lyman & Co's—shot through the foot with a musket ball.

Mr Hibbert, Long Point, also shot through the foot with a musket ball.

A lad nephew of Mr Joseph McKay, St Paul street, shot through the leg.

Patrick Guy shot through the heel with a musket ball.

Mr Chipman of the National Loan Fund wounded in the side.

Mr McGrath, son of Thomas McGrath shot through the body, dead.

A Mr Hudson stone cutter was killed.

A beautiful little boy five years old shot through the leg, breaking the bone.

Mr Stevenson, formerly of the Post Office, severely wounded in the shoulder.

A man killed, name unknown, died in the house of Dr McDonell.

Mr Sidney Jones slightly wounded by a musket ball in the hand.

A lad whose name we could not learn was so wounded as to necessitate the amputation of one of his legs in the Montreal General Hospital, and is not expected to recover.

At the time we write all is quiet. A strong guard of 26th are at the Mayor's residence and the St Lawrence Hall and the streets are being patrolled by mounted artillery men.

The above account is contained in the Montreal Herald of this morning.

The Massachusetts Constitutional Convention have decided by a very large majority in favor of incorporating the secret ballot in the constitution. Its opinion has been expressed in favor of the election by the people of the secretary, treasurer, auditor, attorney general, sheriffs, coroners, county commissioners, clerks of courts, probates, &c.

TORONTO June 10

The steamer Admiral, running between this city and Rochester, was burnt at her wharf this morning, totally destroyed. No lives lost. Insured.

The Portland Advertiser learns that the grass is so heavy and luxuriant in its growth in Maine this year, that farmers will be obliged it is said, to commence haying a week or two earlier than usual.

"That 'ere hanimal's the real stock, mum, and dog cheap at thirty dollars."

"It's a sweet pretty darling—black and white—but in my present bereavement, you must procure me one entirely black. This will do very well, in about six months, for half-mourning."

Seizure of Liquor

On Saturday the city Police under Marshal Farnham, seized at steamboat wharf, twenty one packages of liquor, containing in all three hundred and ninety gallons.

One of the trunks was claimed as the baggage of a New York gentleman, and the claimants were very vociferous and determined to rescue the trunk, and a sharp contest ensued, which lasted nearly or quite half an hour, creating quite a bustle. Upon the inspection of the trunk, it was found to contain two kegs of liquor.

The claimants who made themselves extra conspicuous will probably find that the law is an equal match for them and a quarter over.

GOLDEN ADVICE. Mr. Harvey, the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia North American, tells the following tale:

"About three years ago a young man presented himself to Mr Corwin for a clerkship. Thrice was he refused, and still he made a fourth effort. His perseverance and spirit of determination awakened a friendly interest in his welfare, and the Secretary advised him in the strongest possible terms to abandon his purpose and go to the West, if he could do no better outside the Departments.

"My young friend," said he, "go to the North-west buy 160 acres of government land —or, if you have not the money to purchase, squat on it, get you an axe or a mattock, put up a log cabin for your habitation and raise a little corn and potatoes, keep your conscience clear and live like a freeman, your own master with no one to give you orders and without dependence on anybody. Do that and you will be honored, respected, influential and rich. But accept a clerkship here and you sink at once all independence, your energies become relaxed and you are unfitted in a few years for any other or more independent position. I may give you a place to day and can kick you out to morrow, and there's another man over there at the White House who can kick me out, and the people by and by can kick him out; and so we go. But if you own an acre of land it is your kingdom, and your cabin is your castle—you are a sovereign and you will feel it in every throbbing of your pulse, and every day of your life will assure me of your thanks for having thus advised you." If the thousand who are only strive for places under the government would ponder well these words, and exercise a sound discretion in their application many a young and gallant spirit would be saved from inanition, to be useful to the world and a joy, rather than a grief to its possessor.

STIR YOURSELF. It is sometimes said that "a patient waiter is no loser," but we think this rule has at least one exception. We have seen smart young men walk round with their hands in their pockets, or sit round week after week, with a segar in there mouth waiting for business and we have known such to lose good chances for business which would have fallen into their hands if they had looked it up or even gone out to meet it half way. Some men expect to get their dishes filled with porridge whether they hold them right side up or not. But such persons generally are obliged to go hungry. There are some things that are pretty sure to come unbidden—such as rags dirt poverty disgrace disease and death but business money respectability and happiness need a little coaxing at least some inviting. And he who would prosper in the world must not post himself at the corner of the street and wait for prosperity to come along and arrest him, as perhaps the constable ought to but he must pull on his best boots and give chase to it. In that way he will soon overtake it. But a lazy loafing waiter will be as far from attaining the object of his desire as a black leg is from being an honest man. Whoever wants money must dig for it as the Californians do. And whoever wants business must stir himself to obtain it.

The Telegraphic despatch, with news by the Promethus, stated that a serious riot had occurred at San Juan. The true location of the riot was at San Francisco. The account is as follows:

"A few minutes before the departure of the Sierra Nevada a dreadful altercation occurred at the election for Alderman for the 6th Ward in San Francisco in which several persons were shot and others severely cut and lacerated with bowie knives.

Letters from Washington state that General Campbell, the newly appointed Mexican boundary commissioner has drawn the whole of the appropriation of $33,000, made at the last session of Congress, for the year's expenditures on that work.

Blue Monday

This day is coming to be more universally observed than almost any other of our holidays. And this is strange too for it is contrary to the spirit of our Christian institutions, contrary to good manners, contrary to the moneyed interests of the people. It is bad enough when celebrated only once a year, but when it comes to be observed every week, it is time for independent journalists to lift their voices and proclaim it the unprofitable thing that it is.

See with what rites and offensive ceremonies it is kept. Now is the time of singing birds of bursting buds and the blossoming of fragrant flowers. To the man who keeps Blue Monday singing birds are a bore and bursting buds and blossoming flowers are matters of indifference. He awakes before it is dawn, and growls because it is not later. Dreams haunt his pillow he rolls uneasily, and gets no comfort out of his sleep. He rises and goes out. The air is sultry or damp or raw—never right. He is disgusted with the thoughts of breakfast, yet he frets at BETTY because it is not ready the moment that he is and frets when it comes because it is not better. The steak is tough the coffee is weak, the eggs overdone. His wife is silly, she is so cheerful, or cross, she is so still, or cruel, she is so indifferent. What has got into the young ones? They will tear the house down with their racket, or sour the milk with their sulkiness. Poor wife! Poor young ones! They know what the trouble is. Father is keeping Blue-Monday,—and whether quiet or playful, busy or indolent, they know that he will not be suited. He steps over to the apothecary's for a glass of soda-water, or if he is poor, he takes a drink of whiskey; or if he is conscientious yet, a glass of Scheidam Schnapps. What horrible weather it is! The sun shines out so hot, the streets are so dusty and full of evil odors, everything is so close! What a horrible headache! His head might crack like Jupiter's but there is no thought in it. He goes to his work—for on Blue-Monday, work and play go as usual—but the work amounts to little or nothing, and the play has no sport in it. If he is a mechanic, his tools are out of order, his fellows out of gear, and his employer intolerant, harsh, and exacting. Being a man of spirit, he generally resents some insult which on any other day than Blue Monday would have been no insult at all, is discharged, and spends the next three days in looking up employment. If his business requires any thinking, his thoughts are only semi-fluid—they will not run out at the pen, and of such as do, by virtue of much trying, make their appearance, hole so ashamed, that he earnestly hopes for no more of that sort. Wearily the day wags on to its close, and only as the shades of evening cool the air, and the excitements that come with the evening present themselves, is he himself again. Then he wonders why wife and children do not stir themselves and enjoy the world. Trouble is all nonsense. The world is a good sort of a place, after all, to pass the time, and unless this tedious day has tempted him to the commission of some mischief, of which he must busy himself in repenting, the rest of the week passes along pleasantly enough.

But the keeping of Blue Monday is a very costly luxury—few of us can afford it. Those who prepare for it according to the most approved plan, commence their preparation on Saturday night. The week's wages are not deposited in Saving Banks, but much of them is devoted to making merry with boon companions. A brief sleep yet a late lying in bed on Sunday morning are essential. Then a cruise from street to street and from one groggery to another and a night spent in frolicing and beastly drunkenness, put the devotee in excellent condition for his Blue Monday. But there are others, respectable people who are not drunkards—nay, who do not drink at all, yet devote every Monday to the deities that make maidens and young gentlemen melancholy and hang a gloomy veil over every object. Such are they who make the Sabbath a day of sight seeing and riding into the country. They leave their homes with the dawn and go out to the suburbs hunting pleasure. They look along trout streams over green fields, up steep hill sides, and through dark woods, seeking carefully for pleasure. The excitements of business which have been kept up for a week are exchanged for an excitement no less powerful and no less wearing. Rest is not down on the day's programme. Wearied, dragged out, they return at night trying to convince themselves that it has been a pleasant and refreshing day. Blue Monday does not undeceive them. Jaded and suffering the reaction that always succeeds undue excitement, they meditate a change of business and new connections. Health suffers and spirits flag. They have had their white [day] which was a very defective one at best, and they have paid dearly for it too.

Let all good and honest men pronounce against the keeping of Blue Monday. Shut up the tippling shops disgracing our City at every corner and flouting us with the inefficiency of our Municipal Government, and half of those who waste their wages, spoil their tempers and make miserable their families on these gloomy Mondays will begin to lay up their earnings become good citizens and happy in their family relations. As to the others the press [and] the tongues and actions of good men must convince them that the Sabbath is a better day for Yankee men to keep than Blue Monday. That active business folks who work all day and half through the night for six successive days and nights must then rest, not by stretching all day on beds or sofas by half reading and half sleeping spoiling what is read by dozing over it and spoiling the sleep by reading in it—no by lazily lounging about all day wanting the day to be done eating to aid digestion and sleeping again to the utter loss of the night's sleep, but by quietly turning the current of their thoughts away from the channels they generally pursue to irrigate other fields—by surrendering to meditation an hour or two that one may see where he is standing and whither his course tends—by giving all the labor that one performs to benefit the poor by furnishing the ignorant instruction, by enlightening the darkened by doing good to those who have no others to do them good. Thus the thoughts seek a better than their old gullies, ways they refresh the mind that is weary calm the spirit that is disturbed bring the soul into harmony with what is good and give it impulses toward better and worthier ends. Yankees [illegible] more at night they must carry less steam through the week drink less deep of excitement, chase 'em new with more prudence and make less haste to be rich for six days or they must make more of their Sunday resting. If they will take it quietly on Sunday they will find all their moderate excesses atoned for by its quiet, meditative and reparatory hours. But if they attempt to steal from Nature another day than they are given for the week's allowance she will clip off a year of their lives as indemnity for the past. One day in seven a man must keep. And if he will not keep the Sabbath cost what it will he must keep Blue Monday.—New York Times.

A PSALM OF LIFE.

A PARODY.

What the heart of the young woman said to the Old Maid.

BY GEORGE W. SHORTPILLOW.

Tell me not in idle jingle,
"Marriage is an empty dream!"
For the girl is dead that's single,
And girls are now what they seem.

Life is real! life is earnest!
Single blessedness a fib!
"Man thou art, to man returnest,"
Has been spoken of the rib.

Not enjoyment and not sorrow
Is our destined end or way;
But to act that each to-morrow
Finds us nearer marriage day.

Life is long, and youth is fleeting
And our hearts though light and gay
Still like pleasant drums are beating
Wedding marches all the way.

In the world's broad field of battle
In the bivouac of life
But not like dumb driven cattle!
But a heroine—a wife.

Trust no future, however pleasant
Let the dead past bury its dead!
Act—act to the living present!
Heart within and hope ahead!

Lives of married folks remind us
We can live our lives as well,
And departing leave behind us
Such examples as shall tell.

Such example, that another
Wasting time in idle sport,
A forlorn, unmarried brother
Seeing shall take heart and court.

Let us, then, be up and doing
With a heart on triumph set,
Still contriving still pursuing,
And each one a husband get!

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES,

"I DIGEST" Such is the true meaning of the word PEPSIN," or of the two Greek words from which it is derived. This is the significant and appropriate title of the TRUE DIGESTIVE FLUID, or GASTRIC JUICE, prepared by Dr J S HOUGHTON, of Philadelphia, from the fourth Stomach of the Ox, for the cure of Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It is Nature's own remedy for an unhealthy Stomach. No art of man can equal its curative powers. It renders GOOD EATING perfectly consistent with HEALTH. PROFESSOR ALEX C BARRY'S

TRICOPHEROUS,
or Medicated Compound,

FOR beautifying, improving, and preserving the Hair, curing cuts bruises, burns, stings, rheumatism and all irritations of the skin A preparation, the sale of which amounts to one million of bottles annually, would seem to need no advertisement, but as the thousands who purchase, use and approve of it, have probably no idea of the enormous extent of the business done by Professor Barry, he gives herewith a plain statement of facts derived from his books, and with them tenders his earnest and hearty thanks to his innumerable patrons

Professor Barry's accounts of sales for the year 1852, show that during that year about 910 000 bottles of his Tricopherous were disposed of and that the cash product of this immense sale was nearly $100 000

This plain, unvarnished tale, is a better commentary on the value of the article than any thing its inventor could say If it were not peerless in its effect upon the hair—if it were not invaluable as a household remedy for cuts, bruises, burns, skin diseases, &c—it would not, of course be so universally in demand The wealthy portion of the public would buy it at any price, but Professor Barry has reduced it to a figure so low that the poorest can avail themselves of its benefits

Sold in large bottles (price 25 cents) at wholesale and retail at the manufactory and depot 197 Broadway New York and by the principal merchants and druggists throughout the United States and Canada, Mexico, West Indies, Great Britain, France &c

WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF PURE COD LIVER OIL AND LIME.

A CURE FOR CONSUMPTION COUGHS, COLDS ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS GENERAL DEBILITY AND ALL SCROFULOUS HUMORS

THE Proprietor has succeeded (from directions of Professor Stone) in combining the Oil and Lime so perfectly that the taste of the Oil which is so nauseous to persons generally, is entirely overcome and it can be taken by the most delicate females with pleasure And as regards the benefit of this article over the clear oil the following case, by Prof Stone, is sufficient to convince the most skeptical The young lady was twenty four years of age

Her disease was one of unmixed phthisic which had been expected to terminate in the course of a few months fatally The upper part of both her lungs were filled with tubercles, and in some places were beginning to soften The case was evidently of a bad one The treatment of Cod Liver Oil was at first used but without marked improvement The Phosphate of Lime was then administered with the oil, and the result, as in the case of many others was soon apparent The patient was rapidly getting well

CAUTION—On account of the great reputation of this Compound for all lung complaints the subscriber would caution the afflicted against using any except that manufactured by him as he has the only receipt in the United States for combining the pure Oil with lime in a proper manner Therefore as you value your health, purchase none except that manufactured by

To the readers of the Whig

Will you read the Truth.

A MEDICINE must have merit, and great merit too, to stand the test of public opinion No art of puffing can galvanise a worthless article so as to keep it alive as a good and cure of it be not really so

A good medicine will not become popular and extend its sales year after year in spite of opposition The people readily find out its virtues and its fame passes from mouth to mouth much more rapidly than newspapers can spread it A living witness testifying to the cure that a medicine has made for him is of far more service than any newspaper advertising

In proof of what we say above we refer you to HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE and its effects Its praise is in the mouths of multitudes The best men in our country give their testimony to its wonderful cures Among them we name Hon Henry Clay Hon Richard M Johnson Vice President of the United States with hundreds of others Capt Thomas Cannot—broth of the celebrated physician of the Emperor of France—was cured by it of a disease of seven years standing after the skill of the doctors of Europe and America had failed

In the United States Navy it is taken with great success several officers have been cured by it officers of the Department Washington and cases of unwonted celebrity

In fact the rich and the poor young and old in every place in the city and country find the same success attends its use

HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE is purely vegetable and warranted free from all mineral substances This Tincture by its mild pleasant and safe action on the stomach liver kidneys lungs and the nervous system cures Dyspepsia Liver Complaint Diseases of the Urinary Organs Coughs Asthma Bronchial Affections Consumption Scrofula Rheumatism Gout Neuralgia St Vitus Dance Salt Rheum Affections generally Debility Loss of Complaints with Diseases arising from impure blood As a remedy for the various derangements of the female system it stands unrivalled

Hundreds which might be named can testify to the truth of this statement Ask your neighbor what Hampton's Vegetable Tincture has done for them Inquire at the store where you purchase your medicine and search the testimonials in favor of this remedy Then try it yourself and you will be convinced that it is the best medicine ever offered to the afflicted

How the Discovery of the Vegetable Tincture was made.

Dr Hampton was for a year or two constantly called upon to prescribe for the needy and spent much of his time in medical advice and prescriptions But was very often troubled when he came to visit and ought who should be the cause of all that misery which he saw around him The Great Physician had given to the world which will relieve the sick and suffering if they will search for them and he was led to search the forests and fields which God has made for the healing of the nations and there he found the remedy which he has since given to the world for the cure of disease It will be found in the Vegetable Kingdom and not elsewhere Dr Hampton's Vegetable Tincture is the result of this search and study and is a remedy which will relieve the sick and suffering in any part of the world

Hundreds of certificates have been received from those who have been cured by it Many of these will be published from time to time but the following from one of the most eminent Physicians in the United States will be read by all with interest

Cure of Consumption, Neuralgia, Pain in Side &c

BALTIMORE May 1 1852

Messrs Mortimer & Mowbray — Gentlemen—It is with pleasure I can testify to the great healing powers of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture My wife had been afflicted for three years, laboring under a constant hacking cough with a most violent pain in the right side, neuralgia of the head and dimness of sight, very little rest day or night and much emaciation and to all appearances a rapid consumption inevitable We had the most eminent physicians in Annapolis but his medicines did not give her any relief at all but growing worse at every change in the least, and having read one of your pamphlets in July last she concluded to try Hampton's Vegetable Tincture and after taking but two bottles of which (under God's Providence) we perceived a great change for the better her appetite improved her skin became quite clear coughs pains neuralgias &c entirely left her and by the time she had taken a few bottles more she was completely cured, and is now in the enjoyment of excellent health

Respectfully, EDWARD SANDS

Mr E Bunch—Dear Sir While I am in general opposed to Patent Medicines candor compels me to state that I have great confidence in the virtues of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture For several months past I have used it in my family, and in dyspepsia loss of appetite, drowsiness, and general debility, with entire success, so far as my experience extends, therefore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted as a safe and efficient remedy.
